Who are we?

The Foundation for Cultural Renewal is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization that finds and supports researchers with extraordinary caliber across the globe. It is led by a group of dedicated professionals with the collective experience of more than 5 decades in the nonprofit world.

A number of nonprofits seek to support the much-deserving underprivileged sections of society. A majority of nonprofits offer scholarship and grants to established institutions. We serve a more specific niche: those who have the talents and capacities to form the basis of a new form of science, leading to new forms of technologies and social solutions.

Houston... We have a problem with Science.

Shattered into specialties and jargon

Exploiting nature,
use-and-throw

Isolating us from our purpose

The Root Causes

A Disconnect from Nature

Squeezing the life out of ideas with abstract models and statistics

Forgotten: the Path of Emerson

Nature seen as utility, not as teacher

Affected by political and financial cross-currents

Agendas and profit margins determine avenues of research

Being biased, jargon-filled

Common man isolated from the “experts”

Ivory Tower Syndrome

The Solutions

Science needs a RESET

See Nature Afresh

New creative ideas

Jargon-free, bias-free

Nature's Secrets
as a guide to the Purpose of Humanity
